A specialist in all labour and social security matters Salvador has his own company based in Marbella city centre and called ASESORIA GUERRA. He has collaborated with MARBELLA SOLICITORS for over 8 years.

Salvador assists all our clients when labour legal services are required, such as registration of companies and freelance individuals with the social security authorities, draft and preparation of employment contracts, preparation of monthly wages slips, preparation of retention tax forms, arrangements of dismissal documents when required, different legal paperwork's with social security authorities and immigration authorities, assistance to meeting with Labour inspectors, etc.

Salvador has many years experience in dealing with Labour Authorities as well as with Social security authorities. He enjoys football, tennis and travelling.
